It's Beginning to Look a lot like Christmas at Discovery Gateway
Santa Claus and One of His Reindeer Make a Special Visit to the Museum

SALT LAKE CITY—Santa will make a pre-Christmas stop at Discovery Gateway children's museum on Saturday, December 5th for breakfast and playtime from 8am to 10am. Even though Santa will leave to take care of other errands, one of his reindeer will stay at the Museum from 12pm to 2pm.

Santa Claus's visit is part of the Museum's 2nd annual Breakfast with Santa event. For more information about this event, visit us online at www.discoverygateway.org. The reindeer will be located on the Museum helicopter terrace and is tame enough that children will be able to pet the reindeer.
