

Discovery Gateway Children's Museum Creates Holiday Traditions

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Dec. 03, 2021

Discovery Gateway Children's Museum (DGCM) is hosting a variety of holiday-themed programming and special events.

Discovery Gateway Children's Museum planned a very exciting month for all families to enjoy. With events every weekend, and some during the week, there is sure to be something that fits in your schedule.

"The Children's Museum is a place to celebrate the holidays for everyone in our community," said Executive Director and CEO Kathleen Bodenlos. "We strive to recognize many holidays, such as Hanukkah and Kwanzaa, while also offering the traditional popular events like Breakfast with Santa."

The Children's Museum wants to be a part of holiday traditions for every family, each year. Through various community partners, we can make our traditions that allow the holidays to come to life, so we can share it with all of you.

With Breakfast with Santa concluding over the weekend, this week the museum will host a kid-friendly condensed version of The Nutcracker, which is free with admission. Winter Wonderland, Kwanzaa, The Polar Express, and The Rise Up Children's Choir performances are also happening during December. A New Year's Eve Celebration finishes out the year with a bang and welcomes in a year full of growth, new exhibits, and even more learning through play. "Our goal is to provide inclusive events for every family to come and enjoy so they can experience all the magic of the museum that keeps parents and children wanting to visit again and again," said the CEO Kathleen Bodenlos.
